

Differentiation between software:

1. Vibro12 – used for display of spectra, application programs (ex. balancing), configuration of the routes for DC-21 vibration analyzer. This is a free software.

2. DREAM 0 – software for manual analysis. It has instruments for defect frequencies identification, monitoring, routes creation, thresholds adjustment.

3. DREAM E – software for manual AND automatic diagnostics. Program automatically gives maintenance recommendations, schedules measurements, identifies the severity of the defect. Types of defects and machines, that can be diagnosed are listed in the brochure.

